WRITTEN OPINION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.

PCT/JP2004/015204

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	1 - 5	YES
	Claims		NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims		YES
	Claims	1 - 5	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1 - 5	YES

2. Citations and explanations:

Document 1: JP, 61-28518, A (Asahi Chemical Industry Co., Ltd., presently named Asahi Kasei Corp.), 8 February, 1986 (08.02.86)
Document 2: JP, 60-197717, A (Kuraray Co., Ltd.), 7 October, 1985 (07.10.85)

Document 1 describes a method for producing a curing agent for polyurethane paints, consisting of an aliphatic diisocyanate or an alicyclic diisocyanate and a polyester polyol, in which a polylactone polyol obtained by the ring-opening polymerization of caprolactone using a low-molecular weight compound having at least two active hydrogen groups as an initiator is used as the polyester polyol. However, the document does not describe the use of a copolymerized lactone polyol obtained by the ring-opening copolymerization of at least two cyclic lactone compounds.

However, document 2 describes to the effect that if a copolymerized lactone polyol obtained by the ring-opening copolymerization of β -methyl- δ -valerolactone and ϵ -caprolactone is used as a component of a polyurethane, working efficiency is good since the said polyol is a liquid with a low viscosity, while the low temperature properties of the obtained polyurethane can be improved. So, a person skilled in the art could have easily used both β -methyl- δ -valerolactone and ϵ -caprolactone as cyclic lactone compounds of a polylactone polyol for enhancing working efficiency and improving the low temperature properties of the obtained polyurethane.

Furthermore, the effect achieved by the constitution could have been predicted by a person skilled in the art from the descriptions of documents 1 and 2.

Therefore, the subject matters of claims 1-5 appear to be novel but do not appear to involve an inventive step in view of the descriptions of documents 1 and 2.
